

RAPU ORANGA

In Pursuit of Excellence in Health

Pacific Region

Indigenous Doctors
Congress (PRIDoC) 2006

Rotorua Convention Centre
Rotorua Aotearoa New Zealand
6 - 10 December 2006

Programme

Wednesday 06 December

6.00pm

Pōwhiri at Te Papaïouru Marae

Thursday 07 December – Education, teaching, training and workforce development

7.30am	Registration desk opens		Foyer
8.30am	Opening address		Theatre
9.15am	Prof. Mason Durie
10.00am	Morning tea		Banquet room
	Medical Workforce Development
10.30am	Marlyn Cook , Balancing traditional and western medicine – Healing the body, mind and spirit	Theatre	First time presenters
11.15am	National policies for medical workforce development International Policy Panel from Aotearoa / New Zealand, Australia, Canada, Hawai'i, United States		Student and first time presenters are encouraged to participate in this session to learn necessary skills and techniques to engage their audience. Please bring along a printed copy of your presentation. Kindly sponsored by Boehringer Ingelheim (NZ) Ltd
11.45am	Papaarangi Reid
12.00pm	Discussion
12.30pm	Lunch		Banquet room
	Medical Education
1.30pm	Romalie Mokak, Gregory Phillips and Theanne Walters , A fork in the road – opportunities for medical education reform in Australia		Theatre
2.00pm	Gregory Phillips and international panel of Indigenous medical educators , Collaborations and challenges in Indigenous medical education
2.30pm	Discussion
3.00pm	Afternoon tea		Banquet room

3.30 – 5.30pm

Concurrent streams

Stream A – Curricula	Stream B – Recruitment and retention	Stream C – Capacity building and cultural competency
Developing a curriculum for Māori health in medical education Suzanne Pitama	Sustaining a program to recruit and retain Aboriginal medical students Malcolm King	The HPCA and cultural competence: the past and future Peter Jansen
Designing a medical school cultural competency curriculum Martina Kamaka	Vision 20:20: The history and the way forward Elana Curtis	Collaborative capacity-building in Aboriginal health education and research Evan Adams
Centre for Aboriginal Medical and Dental Health (CAMDH): Investing in the Future Helen Milroy	Meeting the needs of regional minority groups: The University of Washington's programs to increase the American Indian and Alaskan native physician workforce Polly Olsen and Terry Maresca	Interdisciplinary cooperation in a Māori health training programme David Jansen and D Sheehan
A comparison of two remote aboriginal health services Aaron Davis and Chris Gill	Overview of strategies of Māori health workforce development in General Practice Keri Ratima	He Rauemi Hauora – A Māori health resource: Te Ora and Eli-Lilly Fellowship 2004 Lincoln Nicholls
Changing attitudes to putaiao: An outsider let loose on the inside Robyn Manuel	Hearing the Voice of Those Lost at Sea Jessica Blackwood and Rachel Aubrey	Partnerships in policy – working together for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health Romlie Mokak and Jaoy McLaughlin
Achieving a balance: From the perspective of a Navajo physician trained in western medicine Melvina McCabe	So little brother... you want to be a doctor? Studying Medicine at the University of Adelaide from an Indigenous medical student's perspective; a subjective, retrospective discussion Cody Morris	Aboriginal cultural competency training for front-line health professionals: An intervention to improve health outcomes for Aboriginal people Malcolm King
Cultural Events Night at Whakarewarewa (Tuhourangi)

7.00pm

Friday 08 December – Research

8.00am	Registration desk opens	Foyer
8.30am	Moana Jackson	Theatre
9.15am	Susan Sloan , The Women's health initiative: Impact on Native American women's health?
10.00am	Morning tea	Banquet room
10.30am	Paratene Ngata (NZ), Kalani Brady (Hawai'i) and international panel , "Te Ngakau"	Theatre
12.00pm	ACC Presentation
12.15pm	Pharmac Presentation
12.30pm	Lunch	Banquet room
	Richard "Likeke" Paglinawan and Lynette Paglinawan , Ho'oponopono: A Traditional Family Process for Setting to Right
1.30pm	Marjorie Mau , Building research excellence to eliminate health disparities in native communities: Perspectives from Hawai'i EXPORT (Excellence in Partnerships for Community Outreach, Research on Health Disparities and Training) Centre	Theatre
2.00pm	Erin Saito , Epidemiologic and clinical factors associated with chronic kidney disease among Asian Americans and native Hawaiians
2.30pm	Marcia Anderson , Action oriented indicators of health and health system development for indigenous peoples in Australia, Canada and New Zealand
3.00pm	Afternoon tea	Banquet room

3.30 – 5.30pm

Concurrent streams

Stream A – Inequalities	Stream B – Populations	Stream C – Populations (2)
Talking disparities: how the media and politicians represent Māori health and ethnic disparities Donna Cormack	Impact of socio-political environment on native Hawaiian population data Diane Paloma	Kokum, What makes a baby well? – Improving community and researcher understanding of infant health using oral history Janet Smylie
Ethnic Disparities in breast cancer survival: How much is explained by screening, tumor severity, biology, treatment, co-morbidities and demographics? Elana Curtis	Implications of an Indigenous standard population for pacific health data in Aotearoa Shirley Simmonds	Title to come Deborah Brunt
Unequal treatment – Maori and ischaemic heart disease Matire Harwood	Title to come Rachel Thomson	“Race-based” or universal policies? Insights from a nationwide study exploring the health of Māori men Rhys Jones
Community based participatory research in native communities: Fostering partnerships for intervention research Margaret West	Factors affecting the aboriginal women’s health and the improving strategies from gender perspectives Shu-Yu Lyu	Spiritual cultural identity: Roadmap to a global civilization: Survival or extinction Carlos Warter
Native Hawaiian Mortality: A review of five decades Mele Look	Marshallese Medicinal knowledge: documenting reservoirs of knowledge and practice Irene Taafaki
Free evening to discover Rotorua

Evening

Saturday 09 December – Health Services, *Morning kindly sponsored by Henry Rongomau Bennett Fund

8.00am	Registration desk opens	Foyer
8.30am	Rupert Peter and Andy Tjilari, Ngangkari Work – Anangu Way	Theatre
9.15am	Richard “Likeke” Paglinawan, Lua: A way of life
10.00am	Morning tea	Banquet room
10.30am	Helen Milroy, Excellence in health from an Indigenous perspective	Theatre
11.00am	Ngiane Brown, Addressing disparities: human rights, public health and systems reform to improve outcomes in Aboriginal health
11.30am	Ricci Harris, Maori health and inequalities in New Zealand: The impact of racism and deprivation
12.00pm	Rees Tapsell, Tē Rau Hinengaro: The New Zealand Mental Health Survey: The Maori data
12.30pm	Lunch	Banquet room
	General Practitioner’s and student’s get together* Kindly sponsored by RNZCGP

1.30pm

Concurrent streams

Stream A – Service provision	Stream B – Screening, Cancer, Prevention	Stream C – Traditional healing*
People like me: a survey of Maori experiences of health services Peter Jansen	Mayo Clinic’s “Spirit of E.A.G.L.E.S. Community Network Program” (SoE-CNP) Judith Salmon Kaur	Kindly sponsored by Henry Rongomau Bennett Fund and RNZCGP The theory of Māori healing Paratene Ngata
Jimmy Little Foundation – Establishing community based renal resources into remote Aboriginal communities Brad Murphy	Chemotherapy by telemedicine: a model for rural cancer treatment William Thomas	Human body concepts and traditional Kanaka Maoli healing Kekuni Blaisdell
Population based approach to diabetes prevention in a rural Māori community: why a white man can’t do it* David Tipene Leach	Native American cancer education materials and support: An interactive session Linda Burhansstipanov, Linda Krebs and Judith Salmon Kaur	Traditional Healing at the Alaska Native Medical Center Ted Mala

**Video cameras may be present during this session. Your attendance at the session signifies your acceptance.*

2.30pm

Concurrent streams continue

Stream A – Service provision

Cardiovascular rehabilitation - does it work for Māori?
Katrina Scott and Te Aro Moxon

Stream B – Screening, Cancer, Prevention

Ho'okele I Ke Ola Navigator Program: Assessing perceived healthcare barriers in native Hawaiian cancer patients
Ashley Ono

Stream C – Mental health***

Kindly sponsored by Henry Rongomau Bennett Fund and RNZCGP
Ko wai ahau? Who am i? How are cultural identity issues experienced Māori psychiatrists working with children and adolescents?
Hinemoa Elder

Dots and Dialysis (Its much more than Machines)
Sarah Brown and Marlene Spencer

Preventive health in native Hawaiian and other indigenous women
Dee-Ann Carpenter-Yoshino

RNZCGP facilitated session, Primary care as a career
Keri Ratima

“Solving the Indian problem”: Tuberculosis in the Canadian residential school system, 1870 – 1930
Nicole Beauvais and Lana Potts

Improving secondary prophylaxis of Bacilli in Mt Isa patients with Rheumatic fever
Shannon Springer and Deshanau Jayasingha

3.30pm

Afternoon tea

Banquet room

4.00pm

PRIDoC Business session

Theatre

7.00 - midnight

PRIDoC Congress Dinner

Banquet room

**Video cameras may be present during this session. Your attendance at the session signifies your acceptance.*

Sunday 10 December

10.00am

Shared brunch including closing address and Poroporoaki (Farewell)